The Royal Thai Embassy is in Yarralumla, approximately five kilometres south of the city centre. They add to the multicultural atmosphere of the nation's capital by holding a very popular Food and Cultural Festival each spring.

Thai Food & Cultural Festival 2019 was held at the Royal Thai Embassy on Sunday 22nd September 2019 from 10:30 am – 5 pm.

With more than 6,500 people at the Sala Thai, crowding in to taste genuine Thai foods and desserts, Thai handicrafts, cultural performances, vegetables and fruits carving, and Muay-Thai demonstration to highlight the outstanding artistic, diversity, and creativity of Thai culture. Lots of art lovers gathered in Thai Pavilion to see artworks inspired by Thai wisdom. Children can experience their experiments on various types of art workshops and fun activities.

As known, Thai Food and Cultural Festival is always a huge event in the Canberra calendar. The Festival aims to foster the unity and the appreciation of the multicultural society in Australia through appreciation of each other respective culture.
